Roommate Preference

Housing assignments will not be made based on group participation. If you would like to request to live with another student who has been accepted to the University of Mount Olive, please name that individual below. Both individuals need to indicate that they would like to live with each other on their Housing Request Form ensuring that it is a mutual request. The only way to guarantee a roommate request is by mutual request with the student's name on the Housing Request Forms received by the Housing Priority Deadline.
